

question	answer	page
Who is the author of Heartwood Hotel A True Home?	Kallie George	cover
Why did Mona the mouse have to leave her old hollow stump?	It was flooded out by the storm	1
What did Mona love about her hollow stump home?	It had a mushroom table and was near the stream.	1
What was the only thing Mona had left from her family?	A suitcase made from a walnut shell with a little heart carved into the front.	2
What was the name of the place where Mona and the other animals lived?	Fernwood Forest	3
Why didn't Mona want to look for a home to the right of the hollow stump?	There was a farm with a cat in that direction	3
What sound made Mona and all the other animals in the forest scared?	The howl of wolves	4
Why were small animals afraid of wolves?	They were hunters and couldn't be trusted	4
How did Mona lose her parents?	They were swept away in a storm.	4
How did Mona know the hollow tree had been a bear's den?	It smelled like fur, fish, and berries.	5
What were all mice good at doing?	balancing	5
What happened when she was crossing the stream on a stick and saw the wolf eyes in the bushes?	She fell into the water and was swept away in the stream	6
What initials were carved inside a heart into the trunk of the giant tree Mona washed up to?	HH	7
What happened when Mona touched the heart with the HH initials?	It clicked and a door opened up	7
What did Mona smell when she went into the Heartwood Hotel tree?	Roasted acorns	9
What did the sign above the hearth of the Heartwood Hotel say?	We live by 'protect and respect', not by 'tooth and claw'	11

What kind of animals did Mona see dancing and eating in the ballroom inside the Heartwood Hotel?	Rabbits, chipmunks, squirrels, hedgehogs, birds, a lizard, and a badger	11
What kinds of food and beverage were in the ballroom when Mona first came into the Heartwood Hotel?	Mushrooms, juniper berries, licorice roots, acorns, and honey to drink	12
What were the animals celebrating at the Heartwood Hotel when Mona first got there?	The First Acorn Festival to celebrate the arrival of Autumn	12
What was the name of the group of three dark blue birds singing on the stage in the ballroom when Mona first came in?	The Blue Bow Warblers	12
What were the Blue Bow Warblers going to do after their final concert at the Heartwood Hotel?	Fly south for the winter	12
What was one of the Blue Bow Warblers favorite songs that they sang on the stage?	Moon Shine, Sun Rise	13
Who first greeted Mona at the Heartwood Hotel?	The lizard, Gilles	13
What famous guests had stayed previously at the Heartwood Hotel?	Randolph the rabbit speed-race champion and the duchess squirrel Henrietta the Third	14
What large animals did the Heartwood Hotel protect small animals from?	Wolves, coyotes, and cougars	15
What was the name of the newspaper that frustrated Mr. Heartwood by not reviewing the hotel?	The Pinecone Press	15
Which animal was the largest and oldest animal at the Heartwood Hotel?	The badger	15
What did the badger have around his neck?	A big set of wooden keys	17
Where did the badger think the wolves lived?	In the Great Woods past the Fernwood Foothills	17

What did the badger notice about Mona that he said was a coincidence?	The heart carved into her suitcase like the heart carved into the tree of the hotel.	18
What did Mona do for Mr. Heartwood in exchange for letting her stay the night?	Help clean up after the Acorn Festival party	19
What was the name of the maid at the Heartwood Hotel?	Tilly	19
Why did Mr. Heartwood hate wolves?	They had taken his wife while she was going to visit her sister.	19
Why did Mr. Heartwood create the Heartwood Hotel?	To give animals, especially traveling animals, a safe place to stay.	19
What was the sink in the Heartwood Hotel made from?	A shell	21
What kind of animal was the cook at the Heartwood Hotel?	A porcupine	21
What kind of animal was Tilly, the maid?	A red squirrel	21
What was the name of the porcupine cook?	Ms. Prickles	22
What did Ms. Prickles offer to Mona to eat that she said was a favorite with the guests who were mice?	Cheese crumble	24
What was the name of the housekeeper at the Heartwood Hotel that was sick with a cold?	Mrs. Higgens	25
Why did Tilly say that Mona didn't need any keys?	Keys were only for proper staff, like herself, and Mona was only going to be cleaning the ballroom.	26
What did Mona use as a broom to sweep up the ballroom?	A dried dandelion	27
How many Acorn Festivals did Tilly say she had been at?	five	29
What kind of animal was Lord Sudsbury?	A skunk	30

Why did the Sudsbury skunk couple come to the Heartwood Hotel every year?	To celebrate their anniversary	30
Why did Tilly need to get the squirrels rooms ready first?	They were going to have a big nut-storage practices convention	33
What was the currency used to pay employees of the Heartwood Hotel?	Fernwood farthings	33
What did Tilly's mom say about mice?	That they had brains like Swiss cheese - full of holes.	34
Why was the Strawberry Festival canceled?	The strawberry season came too early	35
Why didn't the blackberry season ever come?	It was too dry.	35
What did the frogs do in their suite at the Heartwood Hotel?	They overflowed the tub	36
Why did the boars' suite get extra soap?	They liked to scrub twice	37
What kind of bedding did rabbits like?	Dried grass or oak shavings	38
What kind of bedding did squirrels like?	Crumbled leaves and twigs	38
What kind of bedding did birds like?	Nests made of moss	38
What kind of bedding did moles like?	Dirt and leaves	38
Which animals stayed in the underground floor, the root floor?	Rabbits, moles, voles, shrews, and ground squirrels	38
What was the floor below the root floor of the Heartwood Hotel used for?	Hibernation suites and food storage	38
What was the deepest floor of the Heartwood Hotel used for?	It was Mr. Heartwood's quarters	38
When did they light the hearth in the Heartwood Hotel?	The First Snow Festival	39
Why did the Heartwood Hotel have the Six-Legged Rule?	Insects were so small, everyone would have to worry about where they stepped.	39

What were the trunk floors of the Heartwood Hotel used for?	Room for skunks, hedgehogs and badgers	40
Who was the only badger that had stayed in the Heartwood Hotel?	Mr. Heartwood himself	40
What were the branch floors of the Heartwood Hotel used for?	Rooms for squirrels, chipmunks, and other small animals	40
Which kind of animals were the ones to most often stay at the Heartwood Hotel?	The small animals like squirrels and chipmunks	40
What were the twig floors of the Heartwood Hotel used for?	Rooms for birds and opossums	40
How did opossums like to sleep at the Heartwood Hotel?	They liked to hang upside down from the hanging branch balconies	40
What were the biggest and most expensive suites at the top of the tree of the Heartwood Hotel used for?	The honeymoon suite and the penthouse suite	40
What part of the Heartwood Hotel was very popular at night?	The stargazing balcony	41
What hung on the railing of the Stargazing Balcony?	binoculars	41
What did Mona notice about the blue swallow on the balcony with her?	One of the birds wings was in a sling and she was crying	42
What was the name of the bird with the broken wing?	Miss Cybele	43
Why did Tilly snap at Mona when Mona asked Miss Cybele, the bird, if she was okay?	They weren't allowed to speak to the guests unless the guests spoke to them first.	43
What kind of animal was Mrs. Higgins, the housekeeper?	A hedgehog	44
What were the Sudsbury's special requests for their suite?	Black & white striped sheets, marinated mushrooms, a skunk cabbage bloom, perm rollers for Lady Sudsbury, a tie press for Lord Sudbury, and binoculars	46

What was the bed like in the honeymoon suite?	It was shaped like a heart and stuffed with cattail fluff.	48
What was Mrs. Higgen's husband's job at the Heartwood Hotel?	He was the gardener	50
What plant overpowered the rest in the garden with a fresh, sweet smell?	peppermint	51
What vegetables grew together in one patch in the garden?	Onions and artichokes	51
What did Mr. Higgens give to Mona?	A sprig peppermint	52
Why did the Sudsburys like to have the skunk cabbage in their suite?	It reminded them of home	53
What did the skunk cabbage look like?	It was a leafy plant with one yellow flower on the end of a stalk shaped like a candle flame	53
Why did Mona have to be careful not to surprise the Sudsburys?	They might spray	59
What was Lady Sudsbury's first name?	Rose	60
What was Lord Sudsbury's first name?	Hawthorne	60
Why didn't Lady Sudsbury want Mona to tell Mr. Heartwood that she surprised them and made Lady Sudsbury spray?	He might make them leave	63
How did Mona get rid of the stinky smell from Lady Sudsbury's spray?	She brought in a bunch of peppermint and they crushed it and spread it around the room.	64
What did the heart shaped soap in the washroom smell like?	Nuts and honey	65
What did Mona accidentally call Mrs. Higgens, the hedgehog?	Ms. Prickles (a porcupine)	67
How many squirrels came to the Heartwood Hotel for the convention?	fifteen	67
What did the squirrels drink that made them get wild?	Malted honey	67

What were the names of the 3 laundry rabbits who were siblings?	Maggie and Maurice	68
What did Mrs. Higgins tell Mona when Mona asked what Tilly had gone through?	Everyone's heart has hurts, some more than others	70
In what room was Miss Cybele staying in?	Twig 44	71
What did Mona hear when she went to Twig 44 where Miss Cybele was staying?	singing	72
What did Miss Cybele always do because she had such a pretty voice?	She led the migration melodies for her flock	73
What did the inscription carved below the roosting peg in Miss Cybele's room say?	Heartwood Hotel - Home for all, Forever Thanks, M + T	74
Why couldn't Miss Cybele go with her flock when they flew south for the winter?	There was a storm on the day of the Acorn festival and she was blown into a branch and sprained her wing.	76
Why did Miss Cybele cry?	She was lonely because she couldn't go with her flock.	77
What did Miss Cybele make up a song about?	The Heartwood Hotel	77
What did Mr. Heartwood offer to Miss Cybele in exchange for her singing for Heartwood Hotel guests?	He would waive her room fee and upgrade her to a bird room.	81
When did Miss Cybele give her first performance at the Heartwood Hotel?	At the last dinner of the squirrel's convention	83
What was the name of the woodpecker who was one of the Heartwood Hotel employees?	Tony	84
Why did Tony, the woodpecker, sound an alarm?	There was a bear outside the hotel tree at the hidden front door.	87
Why was it strange for a bear to come up to the Heartwood Hotel tree?	It was late fall, so he should be hibernating.	88

How did Mr. Heartwood always talk which was unique?	He talked in rhyme	88
What did Mona suspect about the bear who was at the front door of the Heartwood Hotel?	He was lost	90
What did Mona do the first time she ignored Tilly that was very brave?	She went into the lobby to talk to the bear.	92
How did Mona know the bear was very old?	He had silvery streaks in his fur	93
What did Mona hit the bear in the nose with?	A seedcake	95
What was the name of the bear?	Brumble	95
How did Mona help Brumble, the bear?	She told him where his den was, upstream from the hotel, and then showed him the way home while riding on his back.	97
Why did Brumble, the bear, wake up and decide to move to his childhood den?	The wolves howling woke him up.	98
Why did Mona think the wolves were far away from the Heartwood Hotel?	Brumble, the bear, had moved near the hotel to get away from the wolves.	100
How did guests and staff traditionally decorate the Heartwood Hotel for the First Snow Festival?	They hung lanterns on the tree and light them for one night.	102
What did Tilly say when Mona asked her if she could put up a black & white picture that Lady Sudsbury wanted to give her?	She wasn't allowed to take gifts from guests, and she wouldn't be there much longer anyway.	102
Which guests who usually stayed in the penthouse for the First Snow canceled?	The Newtons who were newts	103
When did Mona usually watch the front desk?	When Gilles took sun-basking breaks	103

What kind of animal did Mona check into the penthouse suite of the Heartwood Hotel?	A June bug	104
What was the June Bug's name?	Ms. J.	106
How much did a regular room at the hotel cost?	One Fernwood farthing	106
How much did the penthouse suite at the hotel cost?	Five Fernwood farthings	106
What policy did Ms. J. say she had heart about and was concerned about?	Prejudice against six-legged creatures	108
Why did Gilles yell at Mona when he came back to the front desk?	He found out she booked Ms. J, the June bug, and there were no bugs allowed in the hotel.	110
After leaving the Heartwood Hotel, where did Mona stay for the night?	A damp hollow log	115
What memory did Mona have when she ate the seedcake?	Her mom making seedcakes for her that tasted exactly like Ms. Prickles' recipe	116
What did the wolf, Wince, think about the Heartwood Hotel?	That it was just a myth	119
What happened to Mona while she was hiding inside the damp log after leaving the hotel?	A bunch of wolves gathered around and she heard about their plan to attack the animals in the Heartwood Hotel.	120
How did the wolves plan to find the Heartwood Hotel?	Wait until they hung all the lights on the branches for the First Snow Festival.	120
Which of the wolves wore a moles' badge on a ribbon around his neck?	Gnarl	120
What did Wince say he smelled?	Mouse meat	121
What did Mr. Heartwood say to Mona about her leaving the hotel without talking to him first?	She broke his trust in her and her pledge.	126

What did Tilly confess to help Mona?	That she had tricked Mona into leaving by telling her she had to leave or she would be fired.	127
Why did Tilly treat Mona so badly?	She was afraid they would choose Mona over her.	127
What did Mr. Heartwood decide to do so the wolves wouldn't know which tree was the Heartwood Hotel?	Cancel the First Snow Festival - no lights, no fire, and no cooking foods.	129
What was Mona's idea to save the Heartwood Hotel and the First Snow Festival?	They hung light on Brumble, the bear's, tree and put peppermint around it to mask his scent, so when the wolves came, he would scare them away.	137
What did Mona bring for Brumble when she made him wake up to help them?	A piece of honeycomb	139
What did Mr. Heartwood offer to Brumble, the bear, in exchange for helping them by scaring away the wolves?	More honeycomb and berries ready for him when he woke up in the spring	141
What was the most dangerous job, which Mona volunteered for, to disguise Brumble's tree as the Heartwood Hotel?	Hanging the lanterns on branches	142
What happened that almost ruined their plan to disguise Brumble's tree as the Heartwood Hotel?	A big wind blew out all the lanterns hanging on one side of the tree.	144
How did Mona get the wolves to see all the lanterns that were still lit on the other side of Brumble's tree?	She ran out in front of them to lure them to the other side.	147
What did Mr. Heartwood tell Mona after the bravery she showed with the wolves?	He saw the same spirit in her as he did in a pair of mice long ago when the hotel was called the Fernwood.	154

What were the names of the two mice Mr. Heartwood took in long ago in the Fernwood Hotel?	Madeline and Timothy	155
What did Madeline and Timothy convince Mr. Heartwood to do with the hotel?	Change its name from the Fernwood Hotel to the Heartwood Hotel	156
What did Mrs. Higgins give to Mona that meant she was a permanent resident of the Heartwood Hotel?	A wooden Heartwood Hotel key with a heart-shaped top.	158
Why didn't Mona feel too sad about losing her suitcase?	She didn't need it anymore because she was going to live in the Heartwood Hotel.	158
What surprise was revealed about Ms. J, the June bug?	She was the reviewer for the Pinecone Press	159
What did Ms. J, the June bug, plan to publish about the Heartwood Hotel in the Pinecone Press	A Five-acorn review	159
What did Mr. Heartwood ask Ms. J, the June bug, to offer consultation for?	Renovations for bug-sized rooms	159
Why was Tilly sad when they gave her the Heartwood Hotel key?	She had been with her family on the way to the hotel, but a coyote attacked them and she was the only survivor.	161
What was Tilly afraid might happen at the Heartwood Hotel?	She was afraid Mona would take her place and she would lose her new home.	161
What did Mona notice right after she and Tilly became friends and accepted each other as family?	It was snowing	162